It is known, however, that one of the principal objects of the meetings, outside of the main and all-important item of Oriental trade extension, is the settlement of the proportions of traffic between the various lines embraced by the combine.

SAN PEDRO DECISION.

Judge Talbot Strikes Out Portions of Short Line Complaint.

tions argued Thursday in the Nevada grade cases. Motions were made by the San Pedro attorneys to strike out the San Pedro attorneys to strike out certain portions of the compaints in the conferenation suits brought by the Short Line involving land bought by the San Pedro. Judge Talbot, after hearing further arguments, cut out all portions of the complaint referring to the old grade between Callentes and Pioche. He also eliminated that portion of the complaint which alleged that the purpose of the San Pedro was merely to obstruct the Short Line. He left in, however, the part of the complaint in which the Short Line recites the history of the grade and claims that the old rights acquired years ago have been preserved. This will come up for decision on its merits.

The court overruled the demutter in the trespass suits pending. All rail-

San Francisco, Sept. 6.-Under orders from E. H. Karriman, the regular pas senger trains over the Southern Pacific senger trains over the Southern Pacific from end to end will be entirely vestibuled within sixty days. Within the same period fifty chair cars will be put into service. Harriman has also ordered for the company 2,000 flat cars, 500 stock cars, 400 forty-ton coal cars, 1,000 thirty-ton box cars and 250 furniture cars. A thousand of the flat cars are to be built in the shops at Sacramento and New Orleans.

In a fin ucial statement just issued Mr. Harriman states that for the first five months of this year the company gained in gross earnings over the same period of last year $6,197.200. No other road in the country shows such a large increase.

(Special to The Herald.)

Provo, Sept. 6.—An accident occurred this evening at about 9 o'clock on the Rio Grande Western, in which Brakeman Frank Deming of Salt Lake will quite likely lose his life. Freight train No. 14 passed through Provo a little atter 9 o'clock, and at some point between here and Springville the train crew observed that Deming was missings. The train was stopped and backed up to Provo, the crew thinking he had probably missed the train at the Provo station. Not finding him at the Provo station. Not finding him there they cut loses the epgine and went farther up the track to search for him.

At a point about 100 yards this side of the Frovo river bridge they found the brakeman lying slongside the track in an inconscious condition. Deming was immediately summoned. An examination disclosed the fact that his head was crushed in, the skull being completely fractured. Everything tends to show that the man was standing on top of a box car when the train approached the bridge and was struck by one of the bridge timbers as the train passed over it. brigands is a Miss Stone. The sultan immediately upon hearing of the abduction of Miss Stone and her companion, peremptorily ordered the vali of Salonika to secure their release and to exercise every care for their comfort and safety.

Washington, Sept. 6.-The state de-Washington, Sept. 6.—The state department has received information from the United States legation at Constantinople confirming the press report of the capture of an American missionary by brigands. The dispatch from Minister Leishmann reports that brigands captured Miss Stone, an American missionary, who was traveling with a lady companion in the viluyet of Salonika. The department adds that the matter has received the immediate and earnest attention of Minister Leishmann.

MANY YEARS A MISSIONARY. Miss Stone Had Much Experience in

Work in Turkey. Boston, Sept. 6.-The American board

Boston, Sept. 6.—The American board of foreign missions has received a cable message from the Rev. J. H. House, one of the missionaries at Salonika, in Macedonia, saying:

"Brigands took Miss Stone and companion between Bansko and Djoumania."

These places are situated about 100 miles northeast of Salonika in a country long familiar to the missionaries of the American board.

Miss Ellen H. Stone is one of the tried missionaries of the American board, having been in this mission since 1878. It has been a part of her duty to tour among the people with a Bible woman as attendant. Missionaries now in Boston from Bulgaria are confident that no ill treatment will be given these laddes, but think it is simply a case in which ransom is sought for by robbers.
